Save the Date

2016 Humanities in Medicine Symposium

NOVEMBER 4 & 5, 2016 | Mayo Clinic | Phoenix, AZ

Center for Humanities in Medicine
Join us at this intersection of arts and humanities disciplines with a connection to healthcare – inclusive of music, visual art, theatre, dance, creative writing, storytelling, narrative practice, ethical considerations, and other topical discussions. All are invited to participate:

- Physicians
- Nurses
- Arts and Health Practitioners
- Expressive Art Therapists
- Social Workers & other Allied Health Professionals
- Artists from all disciplines
- Arts Directors
- Researchers
- Administrators
- Educators
- Students
- Family and Professional Caregivers

FEATURED ARTIST - EXIT12 DANCE COMPANY

EXIT12 is committed to creating and performing works of high cultural significance that inspire conversations about worldly differences. Through movement, the company educates audiences, advocates diversity and mutual understanding through cultural exchange, and champions the humanity and dignity of all persons.

Roman Baca is an Iraq War Veteran and the co-founder and Artistic Director of Exit12 Dance Company in New York City. After a career in dance, Mr. Baca served as a US Marine and was deployed to Fallujah, Iraq from ’05-’06. Mr. Baca has choreographed major works relating to the military and their families, and conducts Veteran/Civilian movement workshops to provide tools to aid veterans in the workplace and bridge the civilian-veteran divide.

For more information:
HumanitiesAZ@mayo.edu
facebook.com/HumanitiesInMedicine | @MayoHumanities

©2015 Mayo Foundation for Medical Education and Research