COURSE DESCRIPTION/HIGHLIGHTS
This four-day course addresses the role of echocardiography in preventive cardiology, valvular heart disease including percutaneous valve interventions, heart failure, LVAD and congenital heart disease. New topics such as how to perform carotid intima media thickness, 3D imaging, strain imaging, and handheld echo imaging are unique aspects of this course. This course features three 60-minute workshops:
• Three Dimensional TEE Imaging Cases: Learn With the Experts
• Strain Imaging and 3D TTE Imaging: Nuts and Bolts
• Carotid IMT: How to Do it? Live Case Demonstration Using Models

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this activity, participants should be able to:
• Recognize the indication for aortic valve surgery in patients with low flow, low gradient severe aortic stenosis
• Discuss the role of echocardiography in patients with cancer.
• Identify the echocardiographic features which may contribute to aortic regurgitation in TAVR.
• Recognize common adult congenital cardiac conditions.
• Describe the indications for mitral clip for primary and secondary mitral regurgitation.
• Manipulate the three dimensional echocardiographic data set to demonstrate the pertinent cardiac abnormality responsible for patient’s symptoms.
• Summarize the role of imaging in adult patients with complex congenital heart disease

INTENDED AUDIENCE
This course is intended for practicing adult cardiologists, cardiovascular surgeons, cardiovascular trainees, general internists, family medicine specialists, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, sonographers, and nurses with a cardiovascular interest.

GRANTS/EXHIBITS
This course is supported in part by educational grants, in accordance with ACCME standards. As of this printing, a complete listing of commercial supporters was not available. Appropriate acknowledgment will be given to all supporters at the meeting. Exhibits will be available for viewing at all scheduled breaks.

RECREATION/LEISURE ACTIVITIES
America’s sixth-largest city still has real cowboys and rugged mountains and the kind of cactus most people see only in cartoons. Phoenix is the gateway to the Grand Canyon, and its history is a testament to the spirit of Puebloans, ranchers, miners and visionaries. Projected against this rich backdrop is a panorama of urban sophistication: Resorts and spas that drop jaws and soothe souls. Stadiums and arenas worthy of the world’s biggest sports spectacles. Restaurants with inspired cuisine and inspiring patio views. Golf courses that beckon players the year round. Shopping centers as stylish and eclectic as the fashions they house. Don’t forget Scottsdale located in the beautiful Sonoran Desert, bordered by Phoenix to the west and the McDowell Mountains on the east. Scottsdale is annually rated among the nation’s most desirable communities to live in, visit and do business in. Scottsdale’s vibrant downtown is considered the finest urban center in Arizona. Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve, in the city’s northern reaches, is the largest urban wilderness area in the United States and features more than 60 miles of trails through diverse and scenic desert terrain. Visit www.visitphoenix.com or www.experiencescottsdale.com for a variety of recreation and leisure activities in the area.

TRANSPORTATION
Hertz is offering a reduced daily rate for participants attending the course. Visit Hertz online at www.hertz.com and refer to the exclusive CV Number 03NR0010 when making reservations. Special rates include unlimited mileage. Advance reservations are recommended as cars are subject to availability. Supershuttle vans offer airport transportation to and from the hotel. To make reservations, call (800) 258-3826 or (602) 244-9000.
