

ABSTRACTS

Overview: As part of the Neuro and Intensive Critical Care: Review and Hands-on Workshops, a e-poster session for presentation of original research dedicated to the field of Neurocritical Care will be held at the meeting. Submitted abstracts may include proposed society guidelines (e.g., AHA, NCS), ongoing randomized trials in neurocritical care, outcome studies, quality improvement or practice innovations, and interesting case reports. Posters will be peer-reviewed. Accepted abstract recipients notified by email after the deadline, Monday, April 6th 2015. At least one of the authors must register and attend the conference.

Abstract Eligibility: Previously unpublished, presented, or original abstracts in one of the categories mentioned above are encouraged for submission. However, abstracts or data that has been previously presented at another meeting will be considered if they provide particular importance to the field of Neurocritical care, and assuming disclosure and/or permission with that organization/society occurs.

Abstract/ Member-Submitted "Mini-presentations:" Mayo Clinic Neuro and Intensive care Review course is also accepting some abstracts for brief verbal (mini) presentations on PowerPoint that will be 6minutes 40seconds duration (ie., "Pecha Kucha" format of 20 slides only with each slide auto-advancing every 20 seconds) for the following categories:

1.) Interventional Stroke and Neuroendovascular Cases:

Submitted abstracts should be challenging interventional stroke cases in which an unusual finding or outcome occurred with teaching value. For example, a patient on a novel anticoagulant (NOAC) who was excluded for IV-TPA who had a middle cerebral artery (MCA) thrombectomy with good outcome. Alternatively, a novel interventional approach to stroke care will be considered (e.g., hypothermia during interventional thrombectomy).

2.) NeuroICU Survival Stories: These are unexpected NeuroICU survivor stories of patients who 'beat the odds' or had a better than expected outcome, or even miraculous outcome.

3.) Unusual, Rare, and Challenging NeuroICU Cases: Abstracts should represent rare or unusual NeuroICU diagnoses or patient cases. Challenging NeuroICU cases represent a NeuroICU patient scenario in which complex decision-making was made medically, surgically, or psychosocially, or in which current management guidelines are challenged.

Research Competition: Outstanding abstracts will be selected for either poster or Mini-presentation format at the Neuro and Intensive Critical Care: Review Course.

Deadline: Abstract submission deadline is Monday, April 6, 2015.

Notification of Results: All primary authors will be notified by Monday, April 20, 2015 if their submission has been selected for the poster session, and details regarding poster set-up will follow.

Printing of Abstracts: Abstracts chosen for presentation will be printed in the course syllabus.
