ABSTRACTS

Overview: As part of the Rheumatology Review for Primary Care 2016, a e-poster session for presentation of original research dedicated to the field of Rheumatology will be held. Any projects that pertain to the training and practice of rheumatology are welcome. They may include guidelines, randomized trials, outcome studies, practice innovations, or descriptive analyses. E-posters will be chosen from all abstracts received by the Thursday, March 31, 2016 submission deadline.

Abstract Eligibility: Original abstracts that either have or have not been presented at other meetings will be considered. Abstracts are eligible if they have been published; abstracts based upon full papers that have been published are also eligible.

Research Competition: Outstanding abstracts will be selected for e-poster presentations at the Rheumatology Review Course 2016.

Number of Entries: A participant may be the primary author on no more than two abstracts; however, he or she may be a contributing author on any number of abstracts.

Deadline: Abstract submission deadline is Thursday, March 31, 2016.

Notification of Results: All primary authors will be notified by Monday, April 11, 2016 if their submission has been selected for the e-poster session, and details regarding e-poster set-up will follow.

Printing of Abstracts: Abstracts chosen for presentation will be printed in the course syllabus.

Inquiries: For further information, contact Andy Abril, MD/ 904-953-0262/ Abril.Andy@mayo.edu
