

Darren W. Brownlee, MHA

Mr. Darren W. Brownlee, MHA, is a Senior Division Chair of Education at the Mayo Clinic of Florida. He earned his Master of Health Administration from Hofstra University and is completing his Doctorate of Public Health in Health Policy and Management at the Johns Hopkins University. His research interests include health equity, health policy and management.

In 2012, Darren began his healthcare career in Baltimore, Maryland with the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Serving in many capacities, he led various functions within the Department of Surgery and Department of Medicine, managed Chairman's Office activities and led hospital and system wide health equity initiatives. In October of 2018, Darren transitioned to Jacksonville, Florida, as an Operations Administrator for Dermatology, Pulmonary, Allergy, Sleep Medicine, and Respiratory Services and is the Secretary of the Operations Coordinating Group (OCG). In April of 2021, Darren stepped into his current role of Senior Division Chair of Education.

In addition to his profession, Darren is a Past Chapter President and previous Board Member of the National Association of Health Services Executives (NAHSE), an organization geared towards the elevation of quality healthcare services rendered to the poor and members of minority races in the United States. Darren is a proud Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Culture of Health Leader Alum, a group composed of leaders from all sectors working towards collaborative solutions that address health inequities while moving communities and organizations toward a Culture of Health and a former United Way Northeast Florida Fellow.