Dear Representative:

On behalf of Mayo Clinic and the Mayo School of Continuing Medical Education, we are pleased to announce Mayo Clinic's Multidisciplinary Update in Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine course which will be held April 6-9, 2017 at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge in Phoenix, Arizona. We invite you and your company to exhibit at this continuing medical education activity. The exhibit fee is $2,000. Space is limited; early registration is advised.

As you can see from the attached program, we have developed another quality course for the coming year. We have been fortunate to include a multidisciplinary faculty from Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, Florida, Rochester, Minnesota, and Scottsdale/Phoenix, Arizona to provide a state-of-the-art update in pulmonary and critical care medicine. Highlights include: comprehensive approach to the current evaluation and management of various respiratory diseases; pulmonary literature review; and case studies. We expect approximately 150 practicing pulmonary physicians, internists, hospitalists, and specialists in critical care medicine.

If you will join us, please complete the attached exhibitor agreement and return it with your payment (made payable to Mayo Clinic in Arizona) to Mayo School of Continuous Professional Development, Attn: Kristy Badder, 13400 East Shea Boulevard, Scottsdale, AZ 85259. Please denote course activity #17S04981 on all correspondence. Mayo Clinic's Tax ID number is 86-0800150; our W-9 form is attached for your convenience.

To maintain a clear separation of promotion from education, exhibits will be located adjacent to where the educational sessions will be held. Displays should be staffed during breakfasts, breaks, and lunches April 6-9, times are denoted on the attached program.

We hope you will join us in Phoenix in April!

Sincerely,

Part II      Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)

- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the

Withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
