Dear Potential Exhibitor,

On behalf of Mayo Clinic, Mayo School of Continuous Professional Development, and course directors, William Sanchez, MD, Kevin Reid, DMD, Richard Sharp, PhD, we are pleased to announce our Transplant Ethics course, which will be held October 21-22, 2016 at the Loews Minneapolis Hotel, in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The Transplant Ethics course provides a focus on ethical issues in transplant practice centered around real-world cases and includes multi-disciplinary panel discussions. Topics covered include ethical issues surrounding live donation, high-risk recipients, non-directed living donors, ventricular assisted devices, payment for donation, end of life decisions and more. The course is appropriate for participants interested in clinical ethics and health care providers involved in transplantation, as well as providers from practices that interface with transplant centers such as nephrology and dialysis, cardiology, critical care, hepatology, and pulmonology. You may find additional course details on the course website: <https://ce.mayo.edu/transplantethics>

Mayo Clinic recognizes these types of educational programs would not be possible without your support. We invite you to participate at this educational activity with an exhibit in the amount of $1,500.00. This fee is for the exhibit space only. Industry exhibitors are provided a draped table with two chairs.

In support of ACCME guidelines exhibitors will be located in a separate area from the educational activity. Exhibit space is limited and located near the food and beverage area for optimal contact during meals and breaks.

If you are interested in exhibiting at our course, please complete and return the provided Exhibitor Agreement form and payment before September 15, 2016. This agreement may be substituted with your company's standard Letter of Agreement form. Please make payment payable to Mayo Clinic and send payment to my attention at the address below. We look forward to the success of our Transplant Ethics course and hope you will be able to join us this coming October. If you have any questions or your company requires completion of a web-based application, please feel free to contact me at johnson.dorinda@mayo.edu.
