Telephone: (480) 301-4580

Dear Representative,

On behalf of Mayo Clinic's Division of Gastroenterology and Hepatology and Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, we are pleased to announce the "Mayo Clinic Gastroenterology and Hepatology 2018" course will be held February 26 – March 2, 2018 at the Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua, in Maui, Hawaii. We invite you and your company to exhibit at this CME activity. The exhibit fee is $4,000. Space is limited; early registration is advised.

We expect over 225 gastroenterologists, hepatologists, physician assistants and nurse practitioners from across the United States to attend this course which includes general session didactic presentations supplemented with videos, case presentations, panel discussions, lunch breakout sessions, and use of an interactive audience response system. We also will offer an ABIM Maintenance of Certification Learning Session, Update in Gastroenterology, as an optional educational session. A course schedule is attached for your perusal.

As you can see from the enclosed program, we have developed another outstanding course which includes the following topics:

- Hepatology
- Esophageal Disorders
- Small Intestine and Colon
- Functional Disorders
- Pancreas and Biliary
- Inflammatory Bowel Disease
- Advanced Endoscopy with Video Cases

If you will join us, please complete the attached exhibitor agreement and return it with your payment (made payable to Mayo Clinic in Arizona) to Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, Attn: Kristy Badder, 13400 East Shea Boulevard, Scottsdale, AZ 85259. Please denote course activity #2018S580 on all correspondence. Mayo Clinic's Tax ID number is 86-0800150; our W-9 form is attached for your convenience.

To maintain a clear separation of promotion from education, exhibits will be located adjacent to where the educational sessions will be held. Displays should be staffed during breakfasts, breaks, and lunches February 1-3, times are denoted on the attached program.

We hope you will join us in Maui in February!

Sincerely,

	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
