Dear Representative,

We are writing on behalf of Mayo Clinic and Mayo School of Continuous Professional Development to request your consideration of an exhibit / display fee in the amount of $3,500 for the Clinical and Multidisciplinary Hematology and Oncology: The 14th Annual Review 2017 course, being held at the Omni Scottsdale Resort and Spa at Montelucia in Scottsdale, AZ on January 27-29, 2017. We expect approximately 150 physicians and mid level providers and pharmacists who are practicing hematology and medical oncology in the United States.

As you can see from the enclosed program, we have developed an outstanding course which offers challenging, and interactive sessions on pertinent issues involved with the care of cancer patients including: State of the art review in diagnosis and treatment of hematologic malignancies and selected solid tumors; benign hematology for the medical oncologist; sessions utilizing the latest molecular diagnostic techniques and imaging modalities; supportive and palliative care for cancer patients.

Mayo Clinic, an integrated, not-for-profit group practice, is committed to meeting its responsibility as a national medical education resource and is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians (AMA). This course will offer 20.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM.

Please return a signed Exhibitor Agreement to confirm your participation. Payment may be completed by including credit card information on the agreement or by sending your check, made payable to Mayo Clinic Arizona, ATTN: Kristy Badder, Mayo Clinic Arizona, 13400 East Shea Boulevard, Scottsdale, AZ 85259. Please denote project number 2017S448 on your correspondence. The Mayo Clinic Tax ID number is 86-0800150.

As course co-directors, we are hopeful you will be able to participate as an exhibitor. If you are interested in exhibiting or would like to know more details about this educational program, please contact Kristy Badder, by e-mailing exhibits@mayo.edu or calling 480-301-4580. We sincerely appreciate your consideration of this opportunity to join us for a truly unique educational program.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
