Course Description

The 2016 Mayo Clinic Internal Medicine Board Review (IMBR) course is a high-yield intensive program designed to assist with the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Initial and Recertification Examinations and to provide a relevant review for daily practice. Come for our excellent Mayo Clinic faculty, unparalleled content and techniques proven to enhance learning and recall.

Course Learning Objectives

Upon conclusion of this program, participants should be able to:

- Identify content areas of personal strength and weakness to help focus additional self-study
- Recall clinical presentation, diagnosis, and management of conditions critical to the practice of internal medicine
- Choose next best steps in the diagnosis and management of common conditions
- Apply evidence-based medicine principles to answer statistical and clinical questions
- Demonstrate improved understanding and retention of information across the field of internal medicine

Attendance at this Mayo course does not indicate nor guarantee competence or proficiency in the performance of any procedures which may be discussed or taught in this course.

Course Learning Techniques

The Mayo Clinic Internal Medicine Board Review Course incorporates the latest 21st century learning techniques to ensure a personalized learning experience that is proven to improve retention and overall mastery of core competencies by 34%. Every registrant will have access to their own personal learning portal for the 12 months following the live course. The learning portal includes:

- A pre-test that assesses each physician's unique knowledge gaps
- A personalized learning study guide informed by areas where you need or already have mastery, allowing more efficient study time
- Video reproductions of each lecture given at the live course
- A post-test that assesses the improvement made over your course of study and offers 34 MOC points
- Access to world-class content anytime, anyplace there's an internet connection

Both the pre-test and post-test have a downloadable app, so you can answer questions at your own pace.

Intended Audience

This course is designed for General Internal Medicine Physicians who are:

- Intending to obtain a thorough review in Internal Medicine
- Completing their maintenance of certification knowledge modules
- Taking the initial ABIM certification examination
- Taking the ABIM recertification examination
