

Mayo Clinic Hepato-Pancreatico-Biliary Cancer Symposium 2019
Wynn Las Vegas Resort
Las Vegas, Nevada
November 15-16, 2019

The Mayo Clinic Hepato-Pancreatico-Biliary Cancer Symposium 2019 welcomes posters for display throughout the conference from Friday, November 15 – Saturday, November 16, 2019, to be presented during the Welcome Reception on Friday, November 15th from 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.

Nationally and internationally renowned faculty will provide a state-of-the-art update on the latest treatment options for patients with Hepato-Pancreatico-Biliary (HPB) cancers. The program is designed to provide a multi-disciplinary overview on the importance of early diagnosis and treatment considerations, including surgery, radiation, loco regional approaches, and systematic therapies. There will be an emphasis on implementation of these approaches into clinical practice.

Topics for the poster should be based on the various themes for the conference including:

- The importance of early diagnosis and treatment considerations, including surgery, radiation, loco regional approaches, and systematic therapies
- Implementation of the above approaches into clinical practice
- Precision medicine approaches in HPB cancers
- Immunotherapies in HPB cancers
- Multidisciplinary management of HPB Cancer Patient
- Novel preventative and diagnostic approaches in patient at risk for or with HPB cancers
- Scientific advances with translational potential and eventual clinical application as it relates to HPB cancers

The course directors welcome posters that address other related topics.
