

Aeschi 9: Suicide Across the Lifespan: Relational Models of Treatment

June 8-10, 2017
Sonnenalp Hotel, Vail, Colorado

Poster and Workshop Abstracts

Poster Abstracts

Overview: The first afternoon of the three-day conference will feature a poster session whose purpose is to showcase participants' work and stimulate dialogue among conference attendees. Posters can feature data-driven original research on any aspect of suicidology, describe innovative clinical programs or projects related to the assessment and treatment of suicidal patients, or explicate training methods used to increase clinician effectiveness in evaluating such patients. Every effort will be made to include as many posters as possible, based on available space.

The finished poster size can be no larger than 4'x4', to fit on the provided display space. All course attendees will be invited to this reception event, and all approved presenters must attend the poster reception on Thursday, June 8, 2017 from 3:30-5:30.

Abstract Eligibility: In support of inclusiveness, abstracts are not limited to first-time presentations. Abstracts that have been presented at previous meetings are eligible for consideration, as are abstracts from papers that have already been published.

Number of Entries: A participant may be the primary author on no more than two abstracts; however, he or she may be a contributing author on any number of abstracts.

Submission: Please submit abstracts (300-500 Words), 2-3 objectives per poster, abstract name, institution, medical specialty, address, and contact information to johnson.dorinda@mayo.edu by April 24, 2017.

Notification of Results: Authors will be notified of acceptance by May 15, 2017.

Workshop Abstracts

A limited number of proposals for 90-minute workshops will also be accepted.

Submission: Please submit an abstract of 500 words or less and 2-3 objectives per workshop to the course director, J. Michael Bostwick at Bostwick.john@mayo.edu by April 24, 2017.

Notification of Results: Authors will be notified of acceptance by May 15, 2017.

Conference Registration Requirement

Paid conference registration is required for accepted poster and workshop abstracts. Click here to register for the conference.