

46th Annual Mayo Clinic Seminar for Nurse Anesthetists 2021

November 3-5, 2021

WELCOME

April 1, 2021

Greetings,

On behalf of course director Robyn E. Finney, APRN, CRNA, DNAP and the Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development we are pleased to announce this year's 46th Annual Mayo Clinic Seminar for Nurse Anesthetists 2021 course being held November 3-5, 2021.

Course Description

The 46th Annual Mayo Clinic Seminar for Nurse Anesthetists offers the latest evidence-based updates in today's standard of anesthesia care. Expert Mayo Clinic faculty provide an overview of the most recent advances in anesthesiology management, pharmacology, and wellness within the anesthesia community. Attendees leave with a better understanding of new research and current guidelines that are immediately applicable to clinical practice.

Course highlights:

- Review of select topics covered on the CPC Assessment
- Pharmacology credit available
- Evening networking reception
- Poster sessions

Target Audience

This course is designed to provide an overview of the most recent advances in anesthesiology management, pharmacology, and wellness within the anesthesia community.

Exhibit Information

Mayo Clinic recognizes these types of educational programs would not be possible without your support. We invite you to participate in this livestream educational activity with a virtual exhibit hall in the amount of $1,500. # WHY EXHIBIT IN OUR VIRTUAL HALL?

As many in-person national conferences and training events are being canceled and postponed, Mayo Clinic's Virtual Exhibit Hall provides companies with an innovative way to highlight your offerings to potential customers – without travel expenses, shipping of booths/materials, set-ups, or required staff.

Open 24/7 for one year for attendees, the Virtual Exhibit Hall maximizes your visibility, while providing unique customization of your messaging. You can showcase your products/services, share company videos and podcasts, provide informational brochures, photos, and literature, and offer access to your key organization contacts and website links.

Exhibitor Benefits

- Virtual Exhibit Hall promotion before, during and after conference- the content will be available to attendees for one-year post-activity.
- Listing in Exhibitor Directory with link to company website & Landing Page- listing will be alphabetical
- Exhibit Booth Customization, options include PowerPoint slide, PDF handout, or video
- Two non-CME conference access links for representatives to attend all sessions.
- 90 days post-activity, exhibitors will be provided analytics on page traffic
- Attendee list (full name and company name) one week prior to the conference
- Vendor Recognition in course syllabus, opening/closing remarks, and break times

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
