Dear Representative,

On behalf of Mayo Clinic's Department of Orthopedic Surgery and Sports Medicine, and Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, we are pleased to announce our "1st Annual Sports Medicine Summit: Care for the Athlete" continuing education activity will be held April 6-7, 2018 at Mayo Clinic's Education Center in Phoenix, Arizona. We invite you and your company to exhibit at this CME activity. The exhibit fee is $1,250. Space is limited; early registration is advised.

We are planning for approximately 100 sports medicine healthcare providers at all levels, including athletic trainers, physical therapists, physician assistants, primary care physicians, physiatrists and orthopedic surgeons from across the United States to attend. This course features evidence-based and cutting edge diagnostic and treatment strategies for sports-related and musculoskeletal conditions and will be taught by leaders in various fields of sports medicine including orthopedics, physical medicine and rehabilitation, radiology, and neurology. Learning methods include didactic presentations of various sports medicine topics, case presentations, interactive Q & A sessions, and live ultrasound demonstrations. A program schedule is attached for your perusal.

If you will join us, please complete the attached exhibitor agreement and return it with your payment (made payable to Mayo Clinic in Arizona) to Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, Attn: Kristy Badder, 13400 East Shea Boulevard, Scottsdale, AZ 85259. Please denote course activity #18S04462 on all correspondence. Mayo Clinic's Tax ID number is 86-0800150; our W-9 form is attached for your convenience.

To maintain a clear separation of promotion from education, exhibits will be located adjacent to where the educational sessions will be held. Displays should be staffed during breakfasts, breaks, and lunches April 6-7, times are denoted on the attached program.

We hope you will join us in Scottsdale in April!

Sincerely,

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
