

Mayo Clinic OB/GYN Clinical and Surgical Updates Scholarship Information

The Mayo Clinic Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology is offering a scholarship to one OBGYN resident or fellow interested in attending the OB/GYN Clinical and Surgical Updates: Staying Current and Ahead of the Curve 2023 course being held in New Orleans, LA from February 6-9, 2023

The candidate must be in good standing in their training program, must have time/support to attend, and have a commitment to promote the CME course content on social media platforms (Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram) using the conference hashtag #MayoObGyn2023 to increase awareness and engage other ObGyn trainees around learning opportunities provided in the course.

Scholar Award recipients will receive:

- Complimentary meeting registration*
  - Including the cost of any postgraduate workshops

*Airfare, lodging, transportation, and other costs are the responsibility of the attendee

Those interested should submit the following to Koenigs.Kari@mayo.edu by December 5, 2022

- Curriculum Vitae
- Letter/Email of support for attendance from your Program Director if you are selected
- Completed Application form

Mayo Clinic Resident Scholar Application - OB/GYN Clinical and Surgical Updates 2023

Name: _____

Email: _____

Program Information

Residency Program Name: _____

Residency Program Director: _____

Residency Program Director Email: _____

PGY Level: _____

Expected Graduation Year: _____

Social Media Handle

Twitter: _____

Instagram: _____

Other: _____

Please answer the following questions:

Why do you believe attendance at this meeting would be impactful for you?

What skill would you expect to gain from this meeting?

How would you utilize social media to promote this course to other OBGYN trainees?