March 25th, 2023
ROCHESTER, MINNESOTA
Mayo Civic Center

SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

Paths to Emotional Wellness

The 2023 hybrid (in person and live streaming) conference will integrate the important theme of emotional wellness. Highlights include:

- Professional track (CEU's offered) to enhance dementia care knowledge and skills from a cultural, emotional, and psychosocial perspective.
- Drs. Ronald Petersen (Mayo Clinic) and Kristine Yaffe (UCSF) discuss ways to reduce dementia risk and will provide recent updates on new and emerging treatments for dementia.
- Dr. Ericka Tung (Mayo Clinic) will overview how to create a 'well-being roadmap' after a dementia diagnosis.
- Care partners will be offered practical approaches to overcoming the day-to-day challenges of caregiving with opportunities to experience self-care practices.
- Art, music, connection, faith, mindfulness, purpose, movement, community, and skillful communication will be examined as sources of well-being for older adults and those affected by dementia.
- Over 2-hours of flex time for participants to visit booths and learn about your organization and what you have to offer!

We invite you/your organization to be an integral part of our conference by being a sponsor. Learn about the options available on the pages that follow.
