

Mayo Clinic Exhibitor Prospectus
Orthopedic Infectious Diseases
May 19-20, 2023

Welcome

Greetings,

On behalf of Mayo Clinic, Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, and course directors, Gina A. Suh, M.D. and Aaron J. Tande, M.D., I am pleased to announce the upcoming Orthopedic Infectious Diseases which will be held May 19-20, 2023 at the Rochester Marriott Mayo Clinic Area in Rochester, Minnesota.

Designed for the infectious diseases practitioner, this Mayo Clinic course is dedicated entirely to the challenges of managing orthopedic infections. This livestream course features highly interactive, case-based modules delivered by subject matter experts addressing diagnostic and therapeutic challenges. Examples include discordant MSIS criteria for prosthetic joint infections, significance of the unexpected positive intra-operative culture, and use of oral antibiotics for treatment of musculoskeletal infections. Topics are followed by case-based group discussions. Attendees leave with up-to-date, practical information that can be applied immediately to their clinical practice.

Mayo Clinic recognizes these types of educational programs would not be possible without your support. We invite you to participate at this educational activity with an exhibit in the amount of $1,500.00. This fee is for the exhibit space only. In support of ACCME guidelines, exhibitors will be located in a separate area from the educational activity. We anticipate 100 attendees for this year's course. Course details can be found on the course website here.

If you are interested in exhibiting at our course, please complete the online exhibitor agreement before May 1, 2023. For your convenience, our Federal tax identification number is 41-6011702.

We look forward to the success of our Orthopedic Infectious Diseases course and hope you will be able to join us this coming May. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Social security number
or
Employer identification number
4	1	-	6	0	1	1	7	0	2

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
