

Annie T. Sadosty, M.D.

Professor of Emergency Medicine

Annie T. Sadosty, M.D., is a consultant in the Department of Emergency Medicine at Mayo Clinic in Rochester. Dr. Sadosty also serves as dean of Mayo Clinic School of Graduate Medical Education. She joined the staff of Mayo Clinic in 1999 and holds the academic rank of professor of emergency medicine, Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and Science.

Dr. Sadosty earned her B.A. in English at Dartmouth College and her M.D. with honors at Brown University School of Medicine. She continued her training at the University of Maryland Medical System, completing an internship in categorical general surgery and a residency in emergency medicine, while also serving as chief resident.

Dr. Sadosty brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to her role as dean of Mayo Clinic School of Graduate Medical Education, where she is responsible for defining and implementing the strategic vision for graduate medical education in alignment with Mayo Clinic's strategic plan, in collaboration with Mayo Clinic leaders.

Dr. Sadosty has deep connections with Mayo Clinic education, with a long-standing commitment to mentoring the next generation of physicians and physician leaders. She is a Mayo Clinic Distinguished Educator and member of the Mayo Clinic Teaching Hall of Fame. She has a decade of graduate medical education leadership experience, and she pioneered the mandatory emergency medicine clerkship for Mayo Clinic Alix School of Medicine.

In addition, Dr. Sadosty has held numerous leadership roles at Mayo Clinic, including serving as chair of the Department of Emergency Medicine, as regional vice president for Mayo Clinic Health System, and as a member of the Executive Operations Team.

Dr. Sadosty has been active in professional organizations and is currently a member of the American College of Emergency Physicians and the Society for Academic Emergency Medicine. She has also given presentations on her work and has authored numerous journal articles, book chapters and abstracts.