

Josh Murphy, J.D.

Josh Murphy is Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Amherst College and received his law degree from Northwestern University School of Law. He worked as a trial lawyer in Chicago with Segal, McCambridge, Singer & Mahoney for seven years before joining the Mayo Clinic Legal Department in 2000. At Mayo, he served as Chair of the Litigation Practice Group and then Associate Chief Legal Officer before being appointed Chief Legal Officer in 2015. As Chief Legal Officer, Josh provides strategic and administrative leadership to Legal Department staff in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Florida, and Arizona, and provides direct legal support to Mayo Clinic's executive leadership, Board of Governors, and Board of Trustees. At Mayo Josh also serves as the Executive Sponsor for Greater Leadership Opportunities for Women, a Mayo Employee Resource Group whose goal is to promote, educate, and empower women through the development of leadership knowledge, skills, and attributes. Josh lives in Rochester, Minnesota with his wife and two daughters.