Dear Exhibitor,

On behalf of The Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development and Course Directors, Ladan Zand, M.D., Ziad Zoghby, M.D., M.B.A., Hatem Amer, M.D., Jacque R. Wanek, APRN, C.N.P., M.S.N., Erin M. Dahlen, R.N., Becky M. Ness, P.A.-C. and Erin F. Barreto, Pharm.D., R.Ph., we hope you will consider a display opportunity at the Mayo Clinic Nephrology, Hypertension and Kidney Transplantation Update for the Clinician 2024 held February 16-18, 2024 at Coronado Island Marriott Resort & Spa, Coronado, California. We expect around 140 nephrologists, nephrology trainees, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, internists, primary care physicians, pharmacists and other allied health professionals who participate in the care of patients with kidney disorders, and patients with a transplanted kidney or pancreas.

The Mayo Clinic Nephrology, Hypertension and Kidney Transplantation Update for the Clinician 2024 is a three-day symposium designed to update participants on a range of nephrology topics relevant to current medical practice. Through a combination of lectures, literature review, and case-based presentations, this symposium delivers up-to-date and cutting-edge information that can be directly integrated into clinical practice. For attendees unable to join us in Coronado at the live, in person course, this conference will provide an immersive and exciting digital livestream format, with the opportunity to virtually engage with experts.

Choose Your Sponsorship Level

Exhibit fees begin at $4,500 for the full course. Additional advertisement opportunities are offered to expand reach and provide further interaction with attendees. Exhibit space at the live course is limited.

7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
