27th Annual La Crosse Child Maltreatment
Conference 2024
May 2-3, 2024

Greetings,

On behalf of course director Emily Meyer, MSW, CAPSW, we hope you will consider an exhibit opportunity at the upcoming 27th Annual La Crosse Child Maltreatment Conference which will be held May 2-3, 2024 at Stoney Creek

Hotel in Onalaska, Wisconsin. The course is offered live with a livestream enrollment option, and we expect around 100 attendees. The conference is designed for frontline child abuse professionals including child advocacy center staff, child protection workers, medical and mental health professionals, prosecutors, forensic interviewers, law enforcement, school personnel, emergency response personnel, and victim and witness advocates.

The 27th Annual La Crosse Child Maltreatment Conference provides education for the multidisciplinary team of child protection professionals, including medical and mental health providers, law enforcement, child protection workers, educators, child/family advocates and others interested in the welfare of children. Presenters discuss emerging best practice and address ways to collaborate with community and family to protect children and ensure justice for child victims of abuse/neglect. The May conference focuses on recognizing best practices when discussing internet and social media usage among children as well as multidisciplinary team responses to child abuse. Course details are available on the course web site:
