

ERIC L. HARNISCH
VICE PRESIDENT
PROVIDER MARKET, MAYO CLINIC PLATFORM

Eric Harnisch is the Vice President of Provider Market, Mayo Clinic Platform and is passionate about accelerating innovation and growth through technology and global partnerships. He works across business lines to translate strategy into actionable roadmaps and priorities with Mayo Clinic's Platform partnership network. Harnisch has a proven track record of building and maintaining successful relationships with partners.

He is responsible for setting the strategic direction of the provider market that consist of the Connect, MCCN, CEP and CRP programs, which also includes the support of international programs via Mayo Clinic International. Harnisch leads and manages a cross-functional team focused on driving sales, forming strategic partnerships, and optimizing market growth for MCP.

Eric began his career at Mayo Clinic in 2016 in Corporate Development. In Corporate Development, he led institution-wide strategic business partnerships for several foundational Digital Health programs in Mayo Clinic's Practice, Research, and Education shields.

Prior to joining Mayo Clinic Eric held leadership positions in Strategy, Corporate Development, General Management / Operations, and Sales & Marketing in large enterprises as well as start-ups. He has extensive experience using frameworks, tools, and processes to evaluate new opportunities to achieve enterprise innovation and growth objectives.

Eric holds a Masters of Business Administration from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, MN, and a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from North Dakota State University. Eric has served on several boards and is active in his community.