PEINOVICH.MARGARET@MAYO.EDU

Margaret (Maggie) Peinovich is the Pharmacy Manager of Operations for critical access pharmacy services in the Northwest Wisconsin region of Mayo Clinic Health System. She oversees the inpatient and outpatient pharmacy services offered in the four critical access locations along with the staff that support those services. Additionally, she is the Director of Pharmacy Services for Medically Home helping organizations across the country implement successful home hospital pharmacy services.

Previous to her current roles, Maggie served for 5 years as the Senior Pharmacy Manager of Operations for the Northwest Wisconsin Region of Mayo Clinic Health System based out of Eau Claire, Wisconsin. In that role, Maggie supervised operations for the inpatient practices across 5 hospitals as well as the infusion therapy, home infusion, oncology, and home hospital practices. Prior to her leadership roles, she was a clinical coordinator and staff pharmacist at Mayo Clinic Health System – Menomonie, Wisconsin where she practiced a combination of inpatient, oncology, anticoagulation services, medication therapy management, retail, and informatics.

Maggie received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Pharmacy and completed a general practice residency at Abbott Northwestern hospital in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Maggie was raised in small town pharmacy at her grandfather's independent pharmacy which was passed on to her father and most recently her brother. She has a passion for rural medicine fueled by her father's years of service and dedication to his home community.
