

SYED ANJUM KHAN, M.D., FRCP, FCCM
DIRECTOR OF CRITICAL CARE
MAYO CLINIC HEALTH SYSTEM – MANKATO

Dr. Khan is the Director of Critical Care at Mayo Clinic Health System Mankato. She graduated from Government Medical College Kashmir, completed residency in internal medicine from University of Hawaii and critical care fellowship from Mayo Clinic Rochester in 2005. Her clinical practice includes multi speciality critical care with a subspecialty certification in neurocritical care. She is an Associate professor of medicine, Fellow of Royal College of Physicians London, and Fellow of Critical Care Medicine, and holds a gold certification in the Mayo Quality academy. She has authored over one hundred papers and has edited three books.

She has won numerous awards including Mayo Clinic Health System Clinical Excellence Award, Researcher of the year award, Emergency Medicine APP fellowship educator of the year award. She is the MCHS chair for education for Minnesota. She is the MCHS co chair of Education Council a collaboration between MCHS Mankato and Minnesota State University Mankato.

She has been married to her husband Rauf for 32 years and is a proud parent of three lovely children.