

Have you connected with an advocacy group for lung cancer support?

Cancer advocacy groups can help you and your care partner(s) navigate the cancer landscape by providing a variety of resources and services.

These resources may include access to research and education as well as services related to financial and emotional support. Here are some cancer advocacy groups that you may want to explore*:

800-227-2345
cancer.org

602-618-0183
biomarkercollaborative.org

833-797-5800
lungevity.org

800-298-2436
go2.org

844-835-4325
lcrf.org

Don't forget to ask your doctor if there are local advocacy groups through their office/health system or in your community.

*This is a list of some independent organizations you may find helpful; it is not intended as an exhaustive list of all resources/organizations.

This content is for informational purposes only. Inclusion of these organizations does not constitute endorsement by Boehringer Ingelheim.

See reverse side for additional resources

Do you have a driver mutation?*

If the answer is “yes”, then find your cancer support group at biomarkercollaborative.org/find-your-group

*Ask your doctor if you don't know whether you have a driver mutation, amplification, or fusion to determine the appropriate testing

Scan this QR code and scroll to find your cancer support group

Support groups for specific cancer-causing biomarkers

You can find these listed at the Biomarker Collaborative website†:

ALK+ NSCLC

ALK+ Cancers

BRAF+ Cancers

EGFR exon 20 insertions
HER2 exon 20 insertions

EGFR+ NSCLC

EGFR+ NSCLC

KRAS+ Cancers

MET 14 Skipping, MET Amplifications
and other MET alterations

NTRK+ Cancers

RET+ Cancers

RET+ Cancers

ROS1+ Cancers

†This is a list of some independent organizations you may find helpful; it is not intended as an exhaustive list of all resources/organizations.

This content is for informational purposes only. Inclusion of these organizations does not constitute endorsement by Boehringer Ingelheim.

Copyright ©2025 Boehringer Ingelheim Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
All rights reserved. (03/25) PC-US-141674

