SMART Moves: Redefining Asthma Management with Single Maintenance and Reliever Therapy

Session Date: 01/06/2026

Session Time: 11:00 – 11:45 AM (CST)

Target Audience

This continuing education (CE) session was planned to meet the needs of professional staff who deal with the selection and monitoring of medication(s) as part of their patient care duties, including pharmacists, RNs, APRNs, PAs, MDs.

Activity Overview

Originally introduced in 2019, the 2025 Global Initiative for Asthma (GINA) guidelines continue to reinforce the use of single maintenance and reliever therapy (SMART) for acute asthma exacerbations in children and adults. Evidence has demonstrated harm with short-acting beta-agonist (SABA) over-use and instead the guidelines place emphasis on inflammation-targeted approaches with inhaled corticosteroids (ICS) that reduce severe exacerbations and decrease patients' exposure to systemic corticosteroids. This presentation will review the 2025 GINA guidelines for SMART and will explore the evidence supporting this recommendation. We will also consider patient-specific factors influencing regimen selection.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this knowledge-based CE session, participants should be able to:

1. Describe how single maintenance and reliver therapy (SMART) targets the underlying inflammation and bronchoconstriction of asthma.
2. Summarize the clinical evidence supporting the use of SMART.
3. Determine the role of ICS-formoterol as SMART in the management of asthma in pediatric and adult patients.
