WELCOME

Dear Potential Sponsor,

On behalf of the course directors Pooja P. Advani, M.B.B.S., M.D., Patricia A. Cronin, M.D., Sandhya Pruthi, M.D., and the Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, we are pleased to announce the upcoming Multidisciplinary Update in Breast Disease 2026 course which will be held November 5-7, 2026, at the Hilton Austin in Austin, TX.

We expect 200+ oncologists, radiologists, surgeons, pathologists, gynecologists, and advanced practice providers who diagnose and treat patients with breast cancer. This two-and-a-half-day continuing medical education course provides a multidisciplinary update in prevention, evaluation, diagnosis, management, and treatment of benign and malignant breast diseases, and high risk and survivorship issues. The course has multidisciplinary experts in their field presenting the latest, diagnostic, treatment and management options. Highlights include, genetics and high-risk management, breast imaging modalities, supplemental screening options for dense breasts, and more.

If you are interested in supporting the Multidisciplinary Update in Breast Disease 2026 or if you have questions, please contact Heather Schultz. We appreciate your interest and enthusiasm in joining us.

Sincerely,

Brady Watson

Why Sponsor?

Technical and educational exhibits provide a professional and educational environment in which healthcare providers can receive demonstrations, view products and services and discuss the clinical and surgical uses of these products and services, including how they may improve the quality of care and the management of treating breast disease. Additionally, the exhibits enhance the educational content of the meeting helping to provide quality continuing medical education.

Benefits:

- Interact face-to-face with numerous medical professionals
- Build visibility for your company in a competitive marketplace
- Expand your customer base and strengthen existing customer relationships
- Introduce new products and services
- Additional advertisement opportunities to expand reach and further socialize with attendees
