

Point-of-Care Ultrasound Pre-Course: Clinical Integration Workshop

Sunday, January 24, 2027

Optional, additional fee to attend, in person only

06:30 a.m.	Registration and Breakfast
07:00 a.m.	Welcome and Course Overview Learning objectives, faculty introductions, and participant group assignments
Clinical Problem 1: Evaluating the Patient with Dyspnea
07:10 a.m.	Group A: Hands-on Scanning Focused lung, cardiac, and pleural ultrasound with faculty-guided scanning and feedback. Group B: Interactive Cases and Clinical Decision Making Case-based image interpretation and discussion emphasizing integration of POCUS findings with the history, physical examination, and clinical reasoning.
08:10 a.m.	Group Rotation
08:12 a.m.	Group B: Hands-on Scanning Focused lung, cardiac, and pleural ultrasound with faculty-guided scanning and feedback. Group A: Interactive Cases and Clinical Decision Making Case-based image interpretation and discussion emphasizing integration of POCUS findings with the history, physical examination, and clinical reasoning.
09:12 a.m.	Refreshment Break
Clinical Problem 2: Evaluating the Patient with a Red, Swollen Leg
09:27 a.m.	Group A: Hands-on Scanning Focused vascular, soft tissue, and musculoskeletal ultrasound with faculty-guided scanning and feedback. Group B: Interactive Cases and Clinical Decision Making Case-based image interpretation and discussion emphasizing integration of POCUS findings with the history, physical examination, and clinical reasoning

10:27 a.m.	Group Rotation
10:29	Group B: Hands-on Scanning Focused vascular, soft tissue, and musculoskeletal ultrasound with faculty-guided scanning and feedback. Group A: Interactive Cases and Clinical Decision Making Case-based image interpretation and discussion emphasizing integration of POCUS findings with the history, physical examination, and clinical reasoning.
11:30 a.m.	Adjourn