

Joanne M. Conroy, MD

Chief Executive Officer and President – Dartmouth Health

Joanne M. Conroy, MD, is CEO and president of Dartmouth Health, New Hampshire's largest private employer, its only academic medical system and the most rural academic system in the United States. Since stepping into her role in 2017, Dr. Conroy has led significant positive change and growth, including the addition of three hospitals to the system, two major expansion projects, and a strategic planning process that is guiding the organization into the future. Her leadership through the COVID-19 pandemic was also instrumental to Dartmouth Health's ability to respond to dramatically increased patient need, and earned her the New Hampshire Union Leader's Citizen of the Year award for 2022.

Dr. Conroy is frequently named to national rankings of the most influential and effective leaders in healthcare in trade publications like Becker's Hospital Review and Modern Healthcare. A board-certified anesthesiologist, she attended medical school at the Medical University of South Carolina and served as chief resident during her residency at MUSC Health University Medical Center. Dr. Conroy is board chair emerita of the American Hospital Association.