

Michelle Moosally, Ph. D.

Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Minnesota State University, Mankato

Michelle.moosally@mnsu.edu

Dr. Michelle Moosally, PhD, serves as Vice Provost for Academic Affairs at Minnesota State University, Mankato. In this role, she provides leadership for programming, planning, budget, and division initiatives that support student success and academic excellence in collaboration with colleagues across the university.

Prior to her appointment at Minnesota State Mankato, Dr. Moosally served in multiple academic leadership roles at the University of Houston-Downtown, including Associate Vice President for Programming and Curriculum, English Department Chair, and Professor of English. She earned both her PhD and MA in Linguistics from The University of Texas at Austin and a BS in English from Mankato State University. Her career has focused on advancing academic quality and access, curriculum innovation, faculty success, and student achievement.