

Maggie T. Peinovich, Pharm.D.
Pharmacy Manager – NW Region of Mayo Clinic Health System

Margaret (Maggie) Peinovich is Pharmacy Manager for critical access pharmacy services in the Northwest Wisconsin region of Mayo Clinic Health System (MCHS). Additionally, she serves as pharmacy subject matter expert for Dispatch Health helping organizations across the United States develop pharmacy services for hospital at home programs. Prior to her current roles, she had a 5-year career as the Senior Pharmacy Manager of Operations for the Northwest Wisconsin Region of MCHS. In that role, Maggie supervised operations for the inpatient practices across 5 hospitals as well as the infusion therapy, home infusion, oncology, and home hospital practices. Before leadership, she was a clinical coordinator and staff pharmacist at MCHS – Menomonie, Wisconsin where she practiced a combination of inpatient, oncology, anticoagulation, medication therapy management, outpatient, and informatics. She received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Pharmacy and completed a general practice residency at Abbott Northwestern hospital in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Maggie was raised in pharmacy at her grandfather's independent pharmacy which was passed on to her father and most recently her brother. She has a passion for rural medicine fueled by her father's years of service and dedication to his home community.
