

Beth H. Sutton, MD, FACS

Immediate Past President, American College of Surgeons

Beth H. Sutton, MD, FACS has spent her career as a general surgeon in private practice in Wichita Falls, Texas. She has actively participated in the call schedule for the level II trauma center and acute care surgery service at United Regional Health Care System, and is a past president of the medical staff. Dr. Sutton earned her medical degree from Baylor College of Medicine and completed a general surgery residency at Scott and White Memorial Hospital in Temple, Texas. She has served as Secretary and President of the Texas Surgical Society, and has been a Director of the American Board of Surgery. She is a previous Chair of the Board of Regents of the American College of Surgeons and is currently Immediate Past President of the College.