

Faculty Biography

Artika Misra, M.D., M.B.A.

Dr. Misra is the current Physician Chair to population health and a primary care physician with over 15 years of community-based experience, specializing in preventive healthcare through innovative, cost-effective strategies.

Her clinical interests include women's health and obesity care. A dedicated leader, Dr. Misra has held multiple leadership roles within her organization. She earned her medical degree from GMC Nagpur, India, and completed her residency at UAMS, Arkansas. She is a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians and the Royal College of Physicians.